CODE OF CONDUCT

Purpose of Men in Sheds Winslow

- To provide a venue for men to talk and connect with others while participating in group or individual projects.
- To provide opportunities for friendship and socialising in a safe environment while at the same time providing the space, expertise and facilities for men to pursue hobbies, crafts and other creative activities.
- To undertake projects, acceptable to the group, which are of benefit to individuals, other groups and the broader community.

To achieve this we will:

- Maintain an open door policy and will not reject any person on the basis of race, sex, disability, religion or age, though some conditions may apply.*
- Certain restrictions may be placed on participation for physical safety reasons or in if a participant needs the assistance of a carer (which must be provided by the participant).*
- Provide a safe physical environment.
- Provide a safe and supportive social environment
- Provide referrals to other services or agencies when appropriate or requested.
- Respect the rights and decisions of members.
- Respect the confidentiality and privacy of members.

THE WORK ENVIRONMENT IN “THE SHED”:

- We will not tolerate abuse, violence, anti-social behaviour or infringements of the rights of others - persons indulging in this type of behaviour will be asked to leave the Shed.
- Subject to agreed special occasions when alcohol may be allowed in moderation neither alcohol nor drugs are allowed in the Shed - Any person arriving at the Shed obviously suffering from alcohol or drugs, will be invited to leave immediately and return when sober.
- Participants are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous manner towards all members and other users of The Shed - this includes being considerate of other persons' need for space, tools, materials and equipment.

- All members are responsible for implementing health and safety requirements and ensuring they are adhered to at all times. Each member is responsible for the safety of fellow members. Everyone is a safety officer; fortunately it mostly calls for care and common sense. Refer to the Health & Safety Policy Statement and Manual for further information.
- We will share learning, celebrate success and acknowledge and recognise members.
- We will have respect and consideration for life outside the Shed.

GENERAL SHED RULES

- Always clean equipment after use and return tools to the appropriate place.
- Always ensure tools and equipment are in safe working order.
- If a fault is noticed you must immediately notify the Shed Duty Manager.
- Ensure your immediate work area is free of obstructions and your operations do not interfere with other shed activities.

CODE OF PRACTICE

- "The Shed" resources are for "collective profit" not for personal profit.
- Programmes and activities need to be suitable to the aims and objectives of the Shed.
- To commence a community or major project, a brief written proposal needs to be submitted to the Committee who will assess the proposals for suitability.
- No projects are to compete unfairly with local business.
- The Shed identifies that it is necessary to make a profit from events and some projects & activities to ensure future financial viability.
